Darkfall Cave Note

Sister, I know that you'll come find me, but it will be too late. If you find this letter, get out of this forsaken cave as soon as possible. We were fools to think we could live so close to such creatures and live peacefully.

I should've headed back to camp with you after we placed the torches down here. I thought these trolls would be different, that they would somehow understand that we didn't want to hurt them.

I am now cornered and it's only a matter of time before one of the trolls decides to finish me off. I hope it is a quick death.

Farewell, my dear sister.
