Incriminating Letter

Dearest <Alias=Steward>,

<Alias=Jarl> has shown great wisdom in choosing you as <Alias.PronounPos=Jarl> Steward. A position well befitting your character, as it demands great cunning, grace, and, shall we say, a decided talent for performing one's duties tactfully and with much discretion.

The Jarl wasn't acting in <Alias.PronounPos=Jarl> best interest by turning down my gracious offer. But you were able to see past <Alias.PronounPos=Jarl> short-sightedness. In the end, I'm quite sure the Jarl will thank you for your cleverness in this matter.

I am in your debt. Commensurate with your continued cooperation, I grant you a boon.

It is only a matter of time before our efforts bear fruit.
