Endrast's Journal

The eyeless creatures took us in our sleep. I don't know what happened to the Khajiit brothers, we never saw them in the cell. I managed to pick the lock and we made a break for it, but got split up. Sulla yelled something about not leaving without finding what he came here for and Umana chased after him.

Yag and I tried for the top of the cave shaft, but one of the ramps was broken. Without a hesitation, she grabbed me by the scruff of my tunic, threw me atop the ledge and told me to run.

And I did.
I didn't even look back.
I just ran like a coward.
I could hear her fighting them and I just had to get away. I didn't even notice the arrow in my shoulder till I hid here.

Those metal creatures are still all around me and I'm too terrified to even move.

Eight Divines, please just take me now.
