The Fisher King

‹Alias=Player›, Gisli has told me all about the feast of fresh catches you prepared. Your fishing exploits are quickly becoming a thing of legend, and every legend deserves a song.

--Viarmo

Down, down in the briny blue
Lie slaughterfish and clams for stew

Drawn by gold, pearl, and glass
Dullards 'neath the sea trespass

But what of angels, carp, and cats
Grayling, spider, perch and bass?

Lyretail, pygmy, tuna, pog,
What one remains that sings their song?

All hail the king of the rod!

Rattled by bolts that storms invite
They plead with fish that will not bite

With hollow growling in their gut,
They return with empty baskets! But,

When dinner's bell rings, we shout and sing,
"We bend the knee to the fisher king!"

All hail the king of the rod!
